Chattarpur Farmhouse by Moi Den Interiors

These luxury spaces with innovative walls will leave you floored!

by Vedika Nair Mar 30, 2020 One of the best ways to elevate indoor spaces is beautifying the backbone of structures: the floors and walls. We rounded up some quirky and innovative walls and floors—in line with our February-March Focus on Walls & Floors—that infuse life into living spaces!

New Delhi based practice Moi Den Interiors gave this expansive Chattarpur Farmhouse's foyer a triangular patterned flooring using marble inlay. Alongside the door, a jali in mild steel is given a gold coated finish. The light colour palette and glass doors create an illusion of space, easily making this our favourite space in this abode.
