This Farmhouse Achieves the Perfect Harmony of Chic Sophistication

Rectilinear Farmhouse by Moi Den Interiors

Composed of rectilinear volumes and marble façade, this farmhouse is meant to feel expansive and fluid, while also conveying a sense of containment.

A contemporary farmhouse in New Delhi, marks another one of Delhi based Moi Den Interiors's exclusively designed projects.

Trendy accents compliment the sleek gold tones displayed in this lavish space. The designers treated the expansive foyer with triangular patterned flooring using intricately carved marble inlay.

Alongside the door, a jail in mild steel is given a gold-coated finish. The light color palette and glass doors create an illusion of space, truly making this the favorite place in this abode.
